Mittaw, Decemb. 3. N. S.

THE freſheſt Advices from the Muſcovite Camp before Narva are, That the Czar had left a ſufficient number of his Troops to block up that Place, and was marched with the reſt of his Army to meet the King of Sweden; which puts us in expectation of a Battel. 'Tis ſaid, the Swedes are abour 45000 ſtrong, and the Muſcovites 80000, beſides the Troops that remain before Narva.

Warſaw, Decemb. 5. The Miniſters of ſeveral Princes reſiding at this Court continue the Offices of their Mediation, in order to accommodate the Differences between the Kings of Sweden and Poland; Eſpecially at this time, when the diſorderly Poſture of Affairs in Lithuania makes Peace abroad more neceſſary, that ſo the King of Poland may have leaſure to reſtore the Publick Tranquillity at home. The Deputies, who are come hither from the Gentlemen of Oginsky's Party, to deſire the King to remove from Publick Employments all thoſe who adhere to the Intereſt of General Sapieha, have Inſtructions to propoſe a new Model of Government for the Great Dutchy of Lithuania, pretending that the Great Offices which are enjoy'd by a few Perſons under them, make them too Powerful, and cauſe too great an Inequality among the Nobility of that Dutchy. The King has not yet given Audience to theſe Deputies, but has ſent Commiſſioners to Lithuania, to endeavour by fair means to engage thoſe of Oginsky's Party to lay down their Arms, in which 'tis not expected they will have any great Succeſs; And ſeveral Regiments of the Saxon Forces are marching that way from Courland. In the mean time Oginsky's Followers continue to ravage the Eſtates of General Sapieha, and thoſe of his Party, who, ſince their late Defeat, have not been able to draw together any conſiderable Force. The General himſelf, and his Brother the Great Marſhal of Lithuania, are fled to Birza to avoid the Fury of their Enemies, and 'tis ſaid they are ſolliciting the General of the Coſſacks to aſſiſt them with Forces.

Vienna, Decemb. 8. The new Levies are continued, and an Order is publiſhed, for laying a Tax of the Hundredth Peny throughout the Emperor's Hereditary Dominions; And farther Supplies will be demanded of the States of the Lower Auſtria, which are ſhortly to aſſemble here, as likewiſe of the Kingdoms of Bohamia and Hungary. Letters from Eſſeck give an Account, that the Turkiſh Ambaſſador, with the Count of Staremberg, and divers other Perſons of Quality, were gone from thence to Peterwaradin, where they would continue till they had an Account, that Count Oetting, the Emperor's Ambaſſador, was arrived at Belgrade. An Expreſs arrived here two days ago from Tranſilvania, who brings an Account, that the Limits between that Province, the Diſtrict of Temſwaer, and the Province of Walachia, are ſettled to the Satisfaction of the Emperor's Commiſſioner, the Turks having deſiſted from ſeveral Pretenſions they made, contrary to the Treaty of Carlowitz. The Advices from Conſtantinople ſay, the Janizaries had mutinied, and that the Grand Signior had, to appeaſe them, been obliged to diſplace ſeveral of his Officers; but contradict the Report we have had, that the Grand Viſier and the Mufti were ſtrangled in this Tumult.

Dreſden, Decemb. 11. The Daniſh Troops, under the Command of Prince Charles of Wirtembergh, being about 7000 Men, are arrived on the Frontiers of Saxony, and Quarters are appointed for them; The time of their continuance in this Country, will depend upon the Declaration which the King of Sweden is preſſed to make in relation to this Electorate; for if we have nothing to apprehend from that ſide, it's believed theſe Forces will in a ſhort time receive Orders from the Court of Denmark to return home. Here is a talk, that Matters are in a very fair way to be accommodated between the Kings of Sweden and Poland, and that a Treaty for this purpoſe will in a ſhort time be ſet on foot at Oliva or Dantzick. The Diet of the Electorate of Saxony is ſtill aſſembled, but 'tis queſtioned whether the King will come hither to be preſent at it, as was reported.

Strasburgh, Dec. 10. The Marquis d'Uxelles, who went from hence ſome days ago in order to repair to the French Court, received Orders in his Journey to return forthwith hither. Orders are given for changing the French Garriſons in Alſace, for which purpoſe ſeveral Regiments are marching this way from the Franche-Comté.

Francfort, December 15. The Conferences for adjuſting the Dutcheſs of Orleans's Pretenſions on the Palatinate are adjourned for ſome weeks, and the Sieur Obrecht, Plenipotentary from France, intends in the mean time to go to Strasburgh. Several of the Emperor's Commiſſioners for ſupplying his Forces with Proviſions and Ammunition, are lately come hither from Vienna, in order to fill the Magazines of Philipsburgh, Briſac, and other Places on the Rhine, and a conſiderable quantity of Artillery is brought from Buda for the Service of thoſe Garriſons. They write from the Upper Palatinate, that a Review is taken of the Forces of the Circle of Suabia and Franconia, and that Orders will be given for recruiting them.

Cologne, Dec. 17. Levies are making in theſe Parts for recruiting the Elector Palatine's Forces, of which 'tis ſaid ſeveral Regiments are to go into the Emperor's Service. The Elector has demanded a great quantity of Oats, and other Proviſions, of the Dutchies of Berg and Juliers, to ſtore his Magazines, which they have promiſed to furniſh in a ſhort time. Signior Spada, the Pope's Nuncio reſiding in this City, has received by an Expreſs the News of the Election of a Pope, and is preparing to make Publick Rejoicings upon this occaſion.

Hamburgh, Dec. 17. The Daniſh Forces Commanded by Prince Charles of Wirtemberg, having taken their March through the Dutchy of Mecklenbergh, and the Elector of Brandenburgh's Territories, are arrived in Saxony. The laſt Letters from Livonia give an Account, that the Garriſon of Narva had beat off the Muſcovites in ſeveral Aſſaults
